

481—1.10(10A) The state appellate defender. The state appellate defender is appointed by the governor and represents indigents on appeal in criminal cases and on appeal in proceedings to obtain postconviction relief when appointed by the district court which issued the judgment or order.